

REDS TO ESTABLISH 'DICTATOR' IN N. Y.

Series of Strikes Soon to Be Launched to 'Startle' City
Into Submission.

REVOLUTION BY 1922

Radicals Redoubting Efforts,
According to the United Americans.

Various organizations of radicals, working in harmony but under different names, are redoubting their efforts to establish "a dictatorship of the proletariat" in the United States, and are confident they can effect a revolution not later than 1922, according to a statement issued yesterday by the United Americans at 2 West Broadway street, New York. The statement, it was declared, is to be made in New York city, rather than the West, because the facts figure that the metropolitan can be started into submission by a general strike in four days.

Based on their statement on "Confidential Information received by us," officials of the United Americans reacted that the radicals were continuing on a financial basis during the next few weeks to cause distress to workers and favor them more susceptible to revolutionary doctrines. The statement says that Detroit has become the principal center of radicalism in the United States, and that had the government not interfered with his affairs, Ludwig C. A. K. Martens, the Soviet "ambassador," would have moved his headquarters from New York to that city.

At a recent meeting in Detroit, according to information received by the United Americans, continues the statement, "the Communists decided upon a tremendous campaign as soon as the weather becomes more favorable. Staszewski, president of the International Publishing Association, otherwise the Communist party, boasted that this was coming soon when the Communists would destroy utterly the present form of society. He declared with gusto that there would be 'much bloodshed.' The meeting resolved, to send out a large corps of agitators as soon as the weather became more favorable.

Principal reliance is to be placed upon strikes. As many strikes as possible are to be instigated this season, because every strike impoverishes the employer and at the same time demoralizes the workmen and renders them more susceptible to Communist doctrines. Strikers with nothing to do but listen to propaganda are easily convinced they are being robbed by the "privileged classes."

Officials of the local bureau of the Department of Justice said yesterday that their information was to the effect that radical activities hereabouts had "simmered down" noticeably recently.

Sixth Gas Works Fire Victim Dead

Capt. Samuel Brown of Engine 25, Wallabout Market, Brooklyn, who was killed by gas at the fire in the Nassau branch of the Brooklyn Union Gas Company, February 26, died Friday at his home, 1229 Forty-seventh street, Brooklyn. He was the sixth victim of the fire to die. Capt. Brown had been a member of the Fire Department since 1898.

GREENWICH VILLAGE BALL BOSTON RIOT

Imported 'Atmosphere' Has Scandalous Effect.

Boston, March 27.—An attempt to transfer the atmosphere of New York's Greenwich Village to Boston for one night ended in disappointment for promoters and merry-makers. Police blotters and court records today told some of the story, including mentions of five arrests of Harvard undergraduates, a call for police reserves to quell a disturbance and complaint from "Mime, Sonia," promoter of the event, that her room had been looted of $1,100, the proceeds of the sale of tickets and collections.

The occasion was a ball held in a fashionable hotel, attended by theatrical folk, college undergraduates, members of the art colony and others, whose coming to have their fling after the reputed Bohemian fashion of Greenwich Village. The dancers whirled until after midnight, when the orchestra quit. Some one took up the work of turning out jazz tunes at the piano, and the dance was on again, only to be stopped at 2 A. M., when the police intervened.

At about the same time it was announced that the affair was not a financial success and contributions were asked, while some of those in the ballroom demanded their money back. Some contributed to the hat, which was passed, but more sought their money, and the police made little progress toward clearing the hall. Dancers sat on the ballroom floor, voicing their protests at the interruption. When the police returned, some five youths were arrested, charged with drunkenness, and others were ejected. The charges against three were dropped in court after they had signed statements regarding their conduct. Two others, who pleaded not guilty, were found guilty and their cases placed on file.

BEATEN, ROBBED OF PAYROLL IN STREET

James Frangoulin Fights
Against Brass Knuckles.

Taking advantage of a passing elevated railroad train to denude the outcries of their victim, thieves armed with brass knuckles, felled James Frangoulin, 37 years old, assistant cashier of Limerick Bros., Inc., manufacturers of confectionery supplies, 65 Greenwich street, at Greenwich and Leroy street yesterday morning, and stole the firm's payroll amounting to $450.

Mr. Frangoulin was walking west in Leroy street, on his way back from the Greenwich Bank, 62 Hudson street, when a man walked up to him and hit him between the eyes. The blow stunned Mr. Frangoulin, but he grappled with the thief and was getting the best of him when a second man hit him across the back of the head. The second blow rendered the cashier partly unconscious and he fell to the street.

While one of the robbers sat on Mr. Frangoulin's chest, the second stole an envelope containing the payroll from his overcoat pocket. Both of them then ran into Greenwich street. Mr. Frangoulin tried to follow, but was so dazed he could not navigate, and before he was able to make known to passersby what had happened the two men disappeared.
